Email:

Phone Number:

Date:

- I. Detailed description of proposed project, including an approximation of the number of students that would be involved in all aspects of the project.
- II. List and describe what other student groups are involved in the project or how other student groups could participate in the project.
- III. Timeline for project.
- IV. In addition to completing a detailed budget describing what the money from the IOP will be used for, please list and describe any non-monetary resources such as conference room space or other resources you would want from the Institute of Politics.
- V. Please explain how the project could fit into the mission of the Institute:

The Institute of Politics seeks to unite students, particularly undergraduates, with academicians, politicians, activists, and policymakers on a non-partisan basis and to stimulate and nurture their interest in public service in its broadest sense. The Institute strives to promote greater understanding and cooperation between the academic world and the world of politics and public affairs.

- VI. Please explain why an undergraduate would want to attend or participate in this program. Amidst all the opportunities available to the Harvard community, why would students be interested in your proposed project?
